

The Garden That we Grew

Excerpt from the picture book by

Joan Holub

2001

This is the garden _____ we will grow. This _____ the patch we will _____ row by row. This _____ the dirt all warm _____ brown.
These are the _____ we push way down. _____ is the water we _____ on the seeds. These _____ our hands that pull _____ the weeds. These are _____ buds that peek from _____ beds. These are the _____ that poke out their _____. These are the pumpkins _____ grow on the vine. _____ are the summer days _____ with sunshine. These are _____ worms that go here _____ there. These are the _____ that buzz in the _____. This is the day _____ have all waited for. _____
pick our pumpkins- one, _____, three, four!

Words	Response	Substitution
That Is Plant
Is
And Seeds
This
Spray
Are Out The Their
Flowers
Heads
That These Filled
The
And Bees
Air
We We
Two

Notes and comments: